

Join us for the

Shallow Lakes Workshop

Saturday, February 27th 2010
8:30am—1:00pm
Waverly Gardens, North Oaks

Do you live on one of the many shallow lakes in the area? Are you interested in protecting and enhancing our lakes? Join us for a morning of education and fun at the Shallow Lakes Workshop. Two nationally known experts in lake ecology will be speaking about shallow lakes and their management:

- Joe Bischoff from Wenck—Shallow Lake Ecology 101
- Steve McComas from Blue Water Science—Vegetation, Fish Surveys & Management of Shallow Lakes

Participants will also take part in an the interactive Watershed Game which teaches people how Best Management Practices (BMPs) can affect the overall health of a lake. The game offers insights on addressing the needs of State listed Impaired Waters.

Refreshments will be provided.

This workshop is FREE. Registration is required by Wednesday, February 24, 2010.
