

Wet Soil Specialists:

Native and non-invasive naturalized plants that can tolerate low areas, ditches, swales, and floodplains.

Forbes and Ferns:

Blue Flag Iris	Jewelweed	Spotted Geranium	Sensitive Fern
Cup Plant, Blue Lobelia	Arrowheads	Marsh Skullcap	Crested Woodfern
Obedient Plant	Pickrel Weed	Brown-eyed Susan	Boneset. Turtlehead
Sneezeweed	Marsh Marigold	Tufted Loosestrife	Red Columbine
Joe Pye Weeds	Meadowsweet	Purple Poppymallow	Yarrow, Fall Phlox
False Dragonhead	Swamp Milkweed	Giant Sunflower	Cardinal Flower

Grasses, Rushes, and Sedges:

Bottlebrush Sedge	Manna Grasses	Fox, Wooly Sedge	Broadfruit Bur-reed
Softstem Bulrush	Pennsylvania Sedge	Porcupine Sedge	Torrey Rush
Rice-cut Grass	Bebb's Sedge	Water Plantain	Horsetail
Switchgrass	Dark Green Bulrush	Horsetail	Virginia Wild Rye
Canada Blue-joint Grass	Blunt Spikerush	Eastern Woodland Sedge	Broad-leaf (native) Cattail

Shrubs and Trees:

Buttonbush	Sandbar Willow	Silky Dogwood	Tamarack
Redosier, Gray Dogwood	Black Spruce	Silver, Red Maple	River Birch
Speckled Alder	Balsam Fir	Pale Smartweed	Black Ash
Pussy, Black Willow	American Elder	White Cedar	Hackberry
Leatherleaf	Ninebark	Swamp Privet	Cottonwood

Check soil types and sun/shade preferences for each plant. Some plants may be aggressive spreaders in right conditions.